The Death Valley Natural History Association supports education, research and preservation in the Death Valley Region. Some of our projects include:

- Death Valley R.O.C.K.S. (Recreation Outdoors Campaign for Kids through Study) – Education program to bring students into Death Valley National Park.
- Ash Meadows Ed Ventures – Nye County schools participate in educational fieldtrips to Ash Meadows where they actively learn about the unique ecosystem there.
- Scotty's Castle Interpretation and Curatorial Internships.
- Scotty's Castle Organ and Chimes Tower Maintenance Fund.
- Free publications such as the Death Valley Visitor Guide – distributed throughout Death Valley National Park

Please take the time now to fill out the membership form below. If you prefer, you can become a member online at www.dvnha.org, or by phone at 800-478-8564 ext. 10. As a member, you will receive our quarterly newsletter, Telescope, a DVNHA patch and a 15% discount at our stores: Furnace Creek Visitor Center, Stove Pipe Wells Ranger Station, Scotty's Castle, and Ash Meadows Wildlife Refuge.
